

On one occasion, while he was eating with them, he gave them this command: "Do not leave Jerusalem, but wait for the gift my Father promised, which you have heard me speak about. For John baptized with water, but in a few days you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit." (1:4-5)

1

But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.(1:8)

2

"Men of Galilee," they said, "why do you stand here looking into the sky? This same Jesus, who has been taken from you into heaven, will come back in the same way you have seen him go into heaven." (1:11)

3

When the day of Pentecost came, they were all together in one place. Suddenly a sound like the blowing of a violent wind came from heaven and filled the whole house where they were sitting. (2:1-2)

4

They saw what seemed to be tongues of fire that separated and came to rest on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit enabled them. (2:3-4)

5

In the last days, God says, I will pour out my Spirit on all people. Your sons and daughters will prophesy, your young men will see visions, your old men will dream dreams. (2:17)

6

The sun will be turned to darkness and the moon to blood before the coming of the great and glorious day of the Lord. And everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.' (2:20-21)

7

But God raised him from the dead, freeing him from the agony of death, because it was impossible for death to keep its hold on him. (2:24)

8

David said about him: 'I saw the Lord always before me. Because he is at my right hand, I will not be shaken.' (2:25)

9

Peter replied, "Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins. And you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit." (2:38)

10

They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and to fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer. (2:42)

11

Every day they continued to meet together in the temple courts. They broke bread in their homes and ate together with glad and sincere hearts, praising God and enjoying the favor of all the people. And the Lord added to their number daily those who were being saved. (2:46-47)

13

By faith in the name of Jesus, this man whom you see and know was made strong. It is Jesus' name and the faith that comes through him that has completely healed him, as you can all see. (3:16)

15

But many who heard the message believed; so the number of men who believed grew to about five thousand. (4:4)

17

Salvation is found in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given to mankind by which we must be saved. (4:12)

19

All the believers were together and had everything in common. They sold property and possessions to give to anyone who had need. (2:44-45)

12

Then Peter said, "Silver or gold I do not have, but what I do have I give you. In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, walk." (3:6)

14

Repent, then, and turn to God, so that your sins may be wiped out, that times of refreshing may come from the Lord, (3:19)

16

If we are being called to account today for an act of kindness shown to a man who was lame and are being asked how he was healed, then know this, you and all the people of Israel: It is by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified but whom God raised from the dead, that this man stands before you healed. (4:9-10)

18

When they saw the courage of Peter and John and realized that they were unschooled, ordinary men, they were astonished and they took note that these men had been with Jesus. (4:13)
