PACKAGE CONTENTS

Included in this package are the following:

- Quote Flash Cards. Each quote is on a flash card, with one side containing the complete quote, and the other side containing the prejump on one end, and the reference on the other.
- Card Carrying Pouch. This clear vinyl carrying pouch holds up to 50 flash cards at a time. It will protect your flash cards and help them last a lot longer, and its convenient size will allow you to carry your flash cards everywhere.
- Study Guide Booklet. This booklet includes many features that will aid you in successfully learning your quotes. Included are sections on setting study goals, assessing your learning style, study tools and techniques, a complete listing of verses, single- and multi-verse prejump lists, and a progress chart.

DIGGING DEEPER QUOTE SYSTEM

Congratulations! You are about to embark on a voyage that, if you let it, can change your life. David tells us in Psalm 119:11 — “I have hidden your word in my heart that I might not sin against you.” And we know that David was truly a man after God’s heart. Scripture lets us know God’s heart, and memorizing it allows his Spirit to speak to us in the most amazing ways! You will be surprised how the Spirit, one year from now, or even ten or twenty years, will bring to mind some passage of Scripture that you have committed to memory. Be fertile soil and let the Seed of God’s Word grow deep!

SETTING YOUR GOALS

Jesus tells this parable: “Suppose one of you wants to build a tower. Will he not first sit down and estimate the cost to see if he has enough to complete it? For if he lays the foundation and is not able to finish it, everyone who sees it will ridicule him...”

Now it is unlikely that your friends will ridicule you if you set out to learn the quotes this year and don’t succeed in doing so, but memorizing Scripture—especially memorizing large amounts of it—is not something to be entered into lightly. You want to make sure you take stock of your resources and enter into your plan with the greatest likelihood of success. You will want to count the costs and, with God’s help, set up a plan for success.

Why Memorize Scripture?

If you are going to memorize Scripture, it is important that you know why you are doing it. Of course, learning the quotes will make you a better quizzer, but if that is all it does for you, then you are in danger of being like one of the Pharisees or teachers of the Law who were white-washed tombs full of dead men’s bones. They studied and knew the Scripture inside and out, but did not understand or obey it.

As Christians, we are in a battle of epic proportions, and it is important that we be fully armed—this includes having a sharp sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God. Strive to “Learn God’s Word for LIFE.”

Count The Costs

Before you jump into memorization, it is a good idea to take stock of your resources—to come up with a plan. Your success will depend on a number of factors: skill and experience, circumstances, support system, and desire. Let's look at these briefly by asking you some questions.

Skill and Experience. Do you know how to take a study plan and follow through with it? What kind of grades do you get in school? Have you ever memorized before?

Age, Circumstances and Time. Sometimes, but not always, older quizzers know how to make better use of their time. Do you have time in your life to memorize Scripture? Do you have a job after school? Are you home-schooled? Quizzing takes time, and you want to take stock of the time that you have before you commit to any plan of long-term study.

Support System. Think about your support system—your family and friends. Are they usually an encouraging or discouraging force? Will they help you reach your study goals, or will they drag you down? You want to be surrounded by people who will encourage you and are committed to your success.

Desire and Motivation. This is probably the most important factor in achieving success in quizzing. Are you self-motivated, or do you require someone to “push” you? Can you focus on a goal, or do you start things and never finish them? Are you memorizing Scripture because you want to, or because your parents, or friends, want you to do it?

These questions were not meant to discourage you from setting out on this worthy journey, but to help you take a realistic look at your likelihood for success. We can't overcome our limitations unless we first recognize them. But after recognizing them, you can overcome them with determination. So take stock of your resources, and build that tower!

Develop A Plan

Use this Study Guide to help you develop a plan. Taking into account your particular learning style, your skill, available time, support system, and motivation, read the sections “Overview of Learning Styles” and “Tools and Techniques” to help put together a plan that is right for you.

And don't get discouraged if it seems hard at first. Most ventures of lasting value require effort, but the benefit you reap will be eternal!

OVERVIEW OF LEARNING STYLES

When it comes to learning, each person is different, and each has a style of learning that suits him best. Here is a brief overview of some common learning styles:

Visual Learners. Visual learners enjoy using pictures, images, colors and maps to help them organize and retain information. They also use them when communicating with others.

Drawing a representative picture of the verse on the back of the flash card may aid this learner in memorizing Scripture. Coming up with mental pictures which contain plenty of action can also help.

Aural Learners. Aural learners enjoy sounds and music. They usually have good rhythm and can often sing or play a musical instrument. Making the verse into a song may be this learner's preferred method of study. They will also benefit from quoting the verses aloud.

Verbal Learners. These learners find it easy to express themselves, both verbally and in writing. They generally enjoy reading, writing, and public speaking. They may benefit from writing out the verses. (This exercise is also useful for the Physical Learner.) As with the Aural Learner, this learner should practice quoting the verses aloud.

Physical Learners. Physical learners enjoy using their body, their hands, and their sense of touch to learn about the world around them. Often they are involved in sports, or enjoy exercise as a way of sorting through problems.

You can recognise this learner because they will physically act out a verse, walking about with great emotion. If this is your style, don't force yourself to sit at a desk. Get up, walk around, and act out God's Word. Be as expressive as you can. The more motion and emotion that you put into your recitation, the easier it will be for your mind to replay later.

Logical Learners. A logical learner can easily recognize patterns as well as find connections between seemingly meaningless content. They are great at math and solve problems in a very systematic way.

This learner will benefit by approaching the material systematically, learning first the references (as pegs to hang the verses on), and then sequentially learning each verse.

Social Learners. These learners prefer to study in groups or with other people. They listen well to others and often enjoy mentoring or counseling. Anywhere people are, that's where they will be.

This can be a blessing and a curse for someone trying to memorize. It normally takes more time for these learners to learn the verses because they need to be around others, but there isn't a better thing to do with your friends than learn Scripture!

Solitary Learners. Solitary learners like to work alone. They are private and independent, and generally like to plan ahead and set goals. This learner, though, needs to actively try to share God's Word with others, and not let it stay bottled up for no one else to hear.

Most people learn using a combination of learning styles, with one style being predominant. Learning can be a frustrating thing if you don't know your learning style. When you start to recognize and understand your own particular styles for learning, you can use techniques better suited to you. This will greatly increase the speed with which you learn new material, and improve your ability to retain that new knowledge.

Memorization is not easy, but it can be easier if you gain a better understanding of your styles for learning and implement some of the techniques associated with those styles.

TOOLS & TECHNIQUES

In developing a plan, it is important to take stock of all your resources and know how to best use the tools available to you. This section will give you some tips on using the tools supplied in this package, as well as teach you some study techniques specific to scripture memory.

Developing Reference Pegs

Before learning any of the verses, it is a good idea to first learn the references. You can get a list of the references by looking at the Progress Checklist included in this booklet.

Learning the references, in order, will aid you as you mentally "check off" each verse during review. We call them pegs, because on them you will be able to hang each learned verse.

Using The Quote Flash Cards

Do you remember when you first learned to add and subtract? It is very likely that you used flash cards to aid you. Or maybe you have seen your friend's quote cards—usually handwritten 3"x5" cards—that took hours to prepare. Your friend carries them everywhere, because they are the easiest way to learn and review quotes.

The flash cards are numbered sequentially to allow you to easily put them back in reference order. Each card includes the verse on one side and the prejump and reference on the other.

Included in the package is a convenient vinyl carrying pouch to carry around 15-20 of the verses that you are currently working on.

Following are some suggestions for using the flash cards:

- Active and correct stacks. Create an "active stack" of cards that you want to work on. Then say the verse that is on the top of the stack, using that card to check your quotation. If you said the verse correctly, then place the card in your "correct stack"; otherwise, put the card back in your active stack (either in the middle or on the bottom). You will continue doing this until all cards have been removed from your active stack.
- Finish this verse (and give the reference) practice. Turn the flash cards so that the side with the prejump words is up, and rotate the cards so that the prejump words are on top. Then using the active and correct stack method above, read each prejump and attempt to complete the verse. If you get it correct, remove the card from the active stack; otherwise, reinsert the card into the stack.

Since single-verse quotes have different prejumps than multi-verse quotes, we recommend using a highlighter on the prejump words of your multi-verse flash cards to make those stand out and remind you that it is a multi-verse prejump.

- Quote practice. Use the same procedure as above for Finish this verse, but this time hold the cards so that the references are on top.

After you have learned the quotes in order, we recommend that you shuffle the cards and study them in random order. This will help your mind learn to retrieve them randomly, something that you will have to do in a quiz.

Using Your 15-Minutes-es

We all are busy, but living a purpose-driven Christian life requires that we prioritize our commitments and use our time wisely (“for the days are evil”). The truth is, we all waste a lot of our day, and if we were just a little more wise in the use of our time, we could accomplish amazing things.

If we examine our day, we will find that we all have small gaps of unused time (“15-minutes-es”). These 15-minutes-es exist as we wait for our next class, wait in line for lunch, wait for the school bus, and so many other waiting and transition moments. If you can identify just one of these wasted gaps each day, and instead of losing the time forever, review your memory verses, then you will find that you don’t need to set aside much, if any, additional time—these gaps will be more than sufficient to learn and review your verses.

The Rule of 7

There is a commonly held rule of learning—it is called the “Rule of 7.” That is, it takes seven concentrated retention efforts to move knowledge from short-term memory to long-term/permanent memory. In practice, this means that you must focus on a memory verse at least 7 separate times in order to make the verse a part of your permanent memory.

Applying this rule, spend 10 minutes or so learning the verse word-perfectly. Then review that verse at least 6 times in the following days. Finally, maintain your verses by reviewing them once a week.

STUDY PLANS

Now that you have taken stock of your resources and counted the costs, it is time to select a study plan that is right for you. The following is a brief survey of a variety of study plans that will help you reach your goal. You can use one of them, or combine the best of each into your own plan tailored to your needs.

Two-Week Plan

Alternately known as the “I’m Bored With Summer Plan” or “I Love Challenges Plan,” this plan requires 14 consecutive days of availability and will take you 8-12 hours each day for success.

You will find that learning verses on the first day is easier than on the last, since on the last you must not only learn the new, but must also maintain the old. As a result, you should use a staggered learning schedule that learns fewer verses each day. With 150 verses this year, use the following plan. (The format is day, followed by number of verses.)

1 (15)	2 (15)	3 (15)	4 (12)	5 (12)	6 (12)	7 (10)
8 (10)	9 (10)	10 (8)	11 (8)	12 (8)	13 (7)	14 (7)

Four-Week Plan

One month still offers a challenge but is not quite as insane a schedule. You should plan to spend 4-6 hours each day. Following is a sample schedule:

1 (11)	2 (11)	3 (10)	4 (9)	5 (9)	6 (8)	7 (8)
8 (7)	9 (7)	10 (7)	11 (6)	12 (6)	13 (6)	14 (5)
15 (5)	16 (5)	17 (4)	18 (4)	19 (4)	20 (3)	21 (3)
22 (3)	23 (2)	24 (2)	25 (2)	26 (1)	27 (1)	28 (1)

Eight-Week Plan

Two months is plenty of time to learn your quotes. With a longer time span, we can take two days off each week and still accomplish our goal. You should plan to spend 2-3 hours each day. Though not necessary, if you have the time, you may use Day 6 and 7 for review. Following is a sample schedule:

Week 1:	1 (7)	2 (7)	3 (7)	4 (7)	5 (7)
Week 2:	1 (6)	2 (6)	3 (6)	4 (6)	5 (6)
Week 3:	1 (5)	2 (5)	3 (5)	4 (5)	5 (5)
Week 4:	1 (4)	2 (4)	3 (4)	4 (4)	5 (4)
Week 5:	1 (3)	2 (3)	3 (3)	4 (3)	5 (3)
Week 6:	1 (2)	2 (2)	3 (2)	4 (2)	5 (2)
Week 7:	1 (2)	2 (2)	3 (2)	4 (2)	5 (2)
Week 8:	1 (1)	2 (1)	3 (1)	4 (1)	5 (1)

With each of the three previous plans, daily review is essential to your success. Remember, it takes 7 focused retention efforts to move knowledge from short-term to long-term memory.

The Two-Week, Four-Week, and Eight-Week plans are good plans to follow during summer vacation, but if you don't have time to spare in the summer, consider the following plan:

Quiz-Season-Long Plan

This plan might also be called the "Just In Time Plan" since you will want to learn the verses in time for each quiz meet. Though you have a larger amount of time to accomplish this plan, you also have to balance school and other fall and winter commitments. You will want to make sure to balance learning new verses with consistent review.

"Learning-For-Life" Plan

Most quizzers learn their verses for the year and then start fresh the next year, never reviewing previous years' verses. While it would be overwhelming to try to add 120 new verses every year, and then try to review all of the verses from previous years, it is completely possible to select a small number of "key verses" each year and make them part of a systematic review plan.

We encourage you to select ten verses each year that will become a permanent part of your systematic review. Then by the end of six years of quizzing, you will have hidden 60 verses in your heart!

We are so excited that you are determined to “dig deeper” and hide God’s Word in your heart. Let God’s Word change not only your mind, but your heart as well! And “Learn God’s Word for LIFE!”

COMPLETE LISTING OF VERSES

- 1:3 With this in mind, since I myself have carefully investigated everything from the beginning, I too decided to write an orderly account for you, most excellent Theophilus,
- 1:13 But the angel said to him: “Do not be afraid, Zechariah; your prayer has been heard. Your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son, and you are to call him John.
- 1:17 And he will go on before the Lord, in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of the parents to their children and the disobedient to the wisdom of the righteous—to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.”
- 1:26 In the sixth month of Elizabeth’s pregnancy, God sent the angel Gabriel to Nazareth, a town in Galilee,
- 1:27 to a virgin pledged to be married to a man named Joseph, a descendant of David. The virgin’s name was Mary.
- 1:30 But the angel said to her, “Do not be afraid, Mary; you have found favor with God.
- 1:31 You will conceive and give birth to a son, and you are to call him Jesus.
- 1:35 The angel answered, “The Holy Spirit will come on you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. So the holy one to be born will be called the Son of God.
- 1:37 For no word from God will ever fail.”
- 1:41 When Elizabeth heard Mary’s greeting, the baby leaped in her womb, and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit.
- 1:45 Blessed is she who has believed that the Lord would fulfill his promises to her!”
- 1:46 And Mary said: “My soul glorifies the Lord
- 1:47 and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior,
- 1:50 His mercy extends to those who fear him, from generation to generation.
- 1:63 He asked for a writing tablet, and to everyone’s astonishment he wrote, “His name is John.”
- 1:76 And you, my child, will be called a prophet of the Most High; for you will go on before the Lord to prepare the way for him,

- 2:4 So Joseph also went up from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to Bethlehem the town of David, because he belonged to the house and line of David.
- 2:6 While they were there, the time came for the baby to be born,
- 2:10 But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid. I bring you good news that will cause great joy for all the people.
- 2:11 Today in the town of David a Savior has been born to you; he is the Messiah, the Lord.
- 2:14 "Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace to those on whom his favor rests."
- 2:22 When the time came for the purification rites required by the Law of Moses, Joseph and Mary took him to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord
- 2:27 Moved by the Spirit, he went into the temple courts. When the parents brought in the child Jesus to do for him what the custom of the Law required,
- 2:34 Then Simeon blessed them and said to Mary, his mother: "This child is destined to cause the falling and rising of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be spoken against,
- 2:35 so that the thoughts of many hearts will be revealed. And a sword will pierce your own soul too."
- 2:42 When he was twelve years old, they went up to the festival, according to the custom.
- 2:46 After three days they found him in the temple courts, sitting among the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions.
- 2:52 And Jesus grew in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and man.
- 3:4 As it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet: "A voice of one calling in the wilderness, 'Prepare the way for the Lord, make straight paths for him.
- 3:6 And all people will see God's salvation.' "
- 3:16 John answered them all, "I baptize you with water. But one who is more powerful than I will come, the straps of whose sandals I am not worthy to untie. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire.
- 3:17 His winnowing fork is in his hand to clear his threshing floor and to gather the wheat into his barn, but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire."

- 3:21 When all the people were being baptized, Jesus was baptized too. And as he was praying, heaven was opened
- 3:22 and the Holy Spirit descended on him in bodily form like a dove. And a voice came from heaven: "You are my Son, whom I love; with you I am well pleased."
- 9:1 When Jesus had called the Twelve together, he gave them power and authority to drive out all demons and to cure diseases,
- 9:17 They all ate and were satisfied, and the disciples picked up twelve basketfuls of broken pieces that were left over.
- 9:23 Then he said to them all: "Whoever wants to be my disciple must deny themselves and take up their cross daily and follow me.
- 9:24 For whoever wants to save their life will lose it, but whoever loses their life for me will save it.
- 9:25 What good is it for someone to gain the whole world, and yet lose or forfeit their very self?
- 9:29 As he was praying, the appearance of his face changed, and his clothes became as bright as a flash of lightning.
- 9:35 A voice came from the cloud, saying, "This is my Son, whom I have chosen; listen to him."
- 9:42 Even while the boy was coming, the demon threw him to the ground in a convulsion. But Jesus rebuked the impure spirit, healed the boy and gave him back to his father.
- 9:48 Then he said to them, "Whoever welcomes this little child in my name welcomes me; and whoever welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me. For it is the one who is least among you all who is the greatest."
- 9:62 Jesus replied, "No one who puts a hand to the plow and looks back is fit for service in the kingdom of God."
- 10:2 He told them, "The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few. Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into his harvest field.
- 10:16 "Whoever listens to you listens to me; whoever rejects you rejects me; but whoever rejects me rejects him who sent me."
- 10:18 He replied, "I saw Satan fall like lightning from heaven.
- 10:19 I have given you authority to trample on snakes and scorpions and to overcome all the power of the enemy; nothing will harm you.

- 10:27 He answered, “ ‘Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind’; and, ‘Love your neighbor as yourself.’ ”
- 10:33 But a Samaritan, as he traveled, came where the man was; and when he saw him, he took pity on him.
- 10:42 but few things are needed—or indeed only one. Mary has chosen what is better, and it will not be taken away from her.”
- 11:2 He said to them, “When you pray, say: “ ‘Father, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come.
- 11:3 Give us each day our daily bread.
- 11:4 Forgive us our sins, for we also forgive everyone who sins against us. And lead us not into temptation. ’ ”
- 11:9 “So I say to you: Ask and it will be given to you; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you.
- 11:13 If you then, though you are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father in heaven give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him!”
- 11:23 “Whoever is not with me is against me, and whoever does not gather with me scatters.
- 11:30 For as Jonah was a sign to the Ninevites, so also will the Son of Man be to this generation.
- 11:33 “No one lights a lamp and puts it in a place where it will be hidden, or under a bowl. Instead they put it on its stand, so that those who come in may see the light.
- 11:42 “Woe to you Pharisees, because you give God a tenth of your mint, rue and all other kinds of garden herbs, but you neglect justice and the love of God. You should have practiced the latter without leaving the former undone.
- 11:52 “Woe to you experts in the law, because you have taken away the key to knowledge. You yourselves have not entered, and you have hindered those who were entering.”
- 13:3 I tell you, no! But unless you repent, you too will all perish.
- 13:12 When Jesus saw her, he called her forward and said to her, “Woman, you are set free from your infirmity.”
- 13:19 It is like a mustard seed, which a man took and planted in his garden. It grew and became a tree, and the birds perched in its branches.”
- 13:24 “Make every effort to enter through the narrow door, because many, I tell you, will try to enter and will not be able to.

- 13:29 People will come from east and west and north and south, and will take their places at the feast in the kingdom of God.
- 13:30 Indeed there are those who are last who will be first, and first who will be last.”
- 13:34 “Jerusalem, Jerusalem, you who kill the prophets and stone those sent to you, how often I have longed to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, and you were not willing.
- 14:5 Then he asked them, “If one of you has a child or an ox that falls into a well on the Sabbath day, will you not immediately pull it out?”
- 14:10 But when you are invited, take the lowest place, so that when your host comes, he will say to you, ‘Friend, move up to a better place.’ Then you will be honored in the presence of all the other guests.
- 14:11 For all those who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted.”
- 14:23 “Then the master told his servant, ‘Go out to the roads and country lanes and compel them to come in, so that my house will be full.
- 14:27 And whoever does not carry their cross and follow me cannot be my disciple.
- 15:4 “Suppose one of you has a hundred sheep and loses one of them. Doesn’t he leave the ninety-nine in the open country and go after the lost sheep until he finds it?
- 15:7 I tell you that in the same way there will be more rejoicing in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who do not need to repent.
- 15:10 In the same way, I tell you, there is rejoicing in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents.”
- 15:21 “The son said to him, ‘Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you. I am no longer worthy to be called your son.’
- 15:28 “The older brother became angry and refused to go in. So his father went out and pleaded with him.
- 15:32 But we had to celebrate and be glad, because this brother of yours was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found.’ ”
- 16:10 “Whoever can be trusted with very little can also be trusted with much, and whoever is dishonest with very little will also be dishonest with much.
- 16:13 “No one can serve two masters. Either you will hate the one and love the other, or you will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and money.”

- 16:17 It is easier for heaven and earth to disappear than for the least stroke of a pen to drop out of the Law.
- 16:18 “Anyone who divorces his wife and marries another woman commits adultery, and the man who marries a divorced woman commits adultery.
- 16:31 “He said to him, ‘If they do not listen to Moses and the Prophets, they will not be convinced even if someone rises from the dead.’ ”
- 17:1 Jesus said to his disciples: “Things that cause people to stumble are bound to come, but woe to anyone through whom they come.
- 17:4 Even if they sin against you seven times in a day and seven times come back to you saying ‘I repent,’ you must forgive them.”
- 17:6 He replied, “If you have faith as small as a mustard seed, you can say to this mulberry tree, ‘Be uprooted and planted in the sea,’ and it will obey you.
- 17:15 One of them, when he saw he was healed, came back, praising God in a loud voice.
- 17:21 nor will people say, ‘Here it is,’ or ‘There it is,’ because the kingdom of God is in your midst.”
- 17:24 For the Son of Man in his day will be like the lightning, which flashes and lights up the sky from one end to the other.
- 17:35 Two women will be grinding grain together; one will be taken and the other left.”
- 18:7 And will not God bring about justice for his chosen ones, who cry out to him day and night? Will he keep putting them off?
- 18:8 Itell you, he will see that they get justice, and quickly. However, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on the earth?”
- 18:13 “But the tax collector stood at a distance. He would not even look up to heaven, but beat his breast and said, ‘God, have mercy on me, a sinner.’
- 18:16 But Jesus called the children to him and said, “Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these.
- 18:25 Indeed, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God.”
- 18:32 He will be delivered over to the Gentiles. They will mock him, insult him and spit on him;
- 18:33 they will flog him and kill him. On the third day he will rise again.”
- 18:42 Jesus said to him, “Receive your sight; your faith has healed you.”

- 19:8 But Zacchaeus stood up and said to the Lord, "Look, Lord! Here and now I give half of my possessions to the poor, and if I have cheated anybody out of anything, I will pay back four times the amount."
- 19:10 For the Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost."
- 19:17 " 'Well done, my good servant!' his master replied. 'Because you have been trustworthy in a very small matter, take charge of ten cities.'
- 19:26 "He replied, 'I tell you that to everyone who has, more will be given, but as for the one who has nothing, even what they have will be taken away.
- 19:38 "Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord!" "Peace in heaven and glory in the highest!"
- 19:40 "I tell you," he replied, "if they keep quiet, the stones will cry out."
- 19:41 As he approached Jerusalem and saw the city, he wept over it
- 19:46 "It is written," he said to them, "'My house will be a house of prayer'; but you have made it 'a den of robbers.' "
- 21:4 All these people gave their gifts out of their wealth; but she out of her poverty put in all she had to live on."
- 21:9 When you hear of wars and uprisings, do not be frightened. These things must happen first, but the end will not come right away."
- 21:10 Then he said to them: "Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom.
- 21:11 There will be great earthquakes, famines and pestilences in various places, and fearful events and great signs from heaven.
- 21:15 For I will give you words and wisdom that none of your adversaries will be able to resist or contradict.
- 21:19 Stand firm, and you will win life.
- 21:27 At that time they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory.
- 21:32 "Truly I tell you, this generation will certainly not pass away until all these things have happened.
- 21:33 Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will never pass away.
- 21:36 Be always on the watch, and pray that you may be able to escape all that is about to happen, and that you may be able to stand before the Son of Man."
- 22:3 Then Satan entered Judas, called Iscariot, one of the Twelve.

- 22:7 Then came the day of Unleavened Bread on which the Passover lamb had to be sacrificed.
- 22:19 And he took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body given for you; do this in remembrance of me."
- 22:20 In the same way, after the supper he took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you.
- 22:29 And I confer on you a kingdom, just as my Father conferred one on me,
- 22:30 so that you may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom and sit on thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.
- 22:40 On reaching the place, he said to them, "Pray that you will not fall into temptation."
- 22:41 He withdrew about a stone's throw beyond them, knelt down and prayed,
- 22:42 "Father, if you are willing, take this cup from me; yet not my will, but yours be done."
- 22:48 but Jesus asked him, "Judas, are you betraying the Son of Man with a kiss?"
- 22:61 The Lord turned and looked straight at Peter. Then Peter remembered the word the Lord had spoken to him: "Before the rooster crows today, you will disown me three times."
- 22:69 But from now on, the Son of Man will be seated at the right hand of the mighty God."
- 23:4 Then Pilate announced to the chief priests and the crowd, "I find no basis for a charge against this man."
- 23:23 But with loud shouts they insistently demanded that he be crucified, and their shouts prevailed.
- 23:33 When they came to the place called the Skull, they crucified him there, along with the criminals—one on his right, the other on his left.
- 23:34 Jesus said, "Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing." And they divided up his clothes by casting lots.
- 23:43 Jesus answered him, "Truly I tell you, today you will be with me in paradise."
- 23:45 for the sun stopped shining. And the curtain of the temple was torn in two.
- 23:46 Jesus called out with a loud voice, "Father, into your hands I commit my spirit." When he had said this, he breathed his last.

- 23:53 Then he took it down, wrapped it in linen cloth and placed it in a tomb cut in the rock, one in which no one had yet been laid.
- 24:1 On the first day of the week, very early in the morning, the women took the spices they had prepared and went to the tomb.
- 24:2 They found the stone rolled away from the tomb,
- 24:3 but when they entered, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus.
- 24:4 While they were wondering about this, suddenly two men in clothes that gleamed like lightning stood beside them.
- 24:6 He is not here; he has risen! Remember how he told you, while he was still with you in Galilee:
- 24:11 But they did not believe the women, because their words seemed to them like nonsense.
- 24:32 They asked each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he talked with us on the road and opened the Scriptures to us?"
- 24:36 While they were still talking about this, Jesus himself stood among them and said to them, "Peace be with you."
- 24:44 He said to them, "This is what I told you while I was still with you: Everything must be fulfilled that is written about me in the Law of Moses, the Prophets and the Psalms."
- 24:45 Then he opened their minds so they could understand the Scriptures.
- 24:47 and repentance for the forgiveness of sins will be preached in his name to all nations, beginning at Jerusalem.
- 24:49 I am going to send you what my Father has promised; but stay in the city until you have been clothed with power from on high."
- 24:51 While he was blessing them, he left them and was taken up into heaven.
