DIGGING DEEPER QUOTE SYSTEM

Congratulations! You are about to embark on a voyage that, if you let it, can change your life. David tells us in Psalm 119:11 — “I have hidden your word in my heart that I might not sin against you.” And we know that David was truly a man after God’s heart. Scripture lets us know God’s heart, and memorizing it allows his Spirit to speak to us in the most amazing ways! You will be surprised how the Spirit, one year from now, or even ten or twenty years, will bring to mind some passage of Scripture that you have committed to memory. Be fertile soil and let the Seed of God’s Word grow deep!

SETTING YOUR GOALS

Jesus tells this parable: “Suppose one of you wants to build a tower. Will he not first sit down and estimate the cost to see if he has enough to complete it? For if he lays the foundation and is not able to finish it, everyone who sees it will ridicule him...”

Now it is unlikely that your friends will ridicule you if you set out to learn the quotes this year and don’t succeed in doing so, but memorizing Scripture—especially memorizing large amounts of it—is not something to be entered into lightly. You want to make sure you take stock of your resources and enter into your plan with the greatest likelihood of success. You will want to count the costs and, with God’s help, set up a plan for success.

Why Memorize Scripture?

If you are going to memorize Scripture, it is important that you know why you are doing it. Of course, learning the quotes will make you a better quizzer, but if that is all it does for you, then you are in danger of being like one of the Pharisees or teachers of the Law who were white-washed tombs full of dead men’s bones. They studied and knew the Scripture inside and out, but did not understand or obey it.

As Christians, we are in a battle of epic proportions, and it is important that we be fully armed—this includes having a sharp sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God. Strive to “Learn God’s Word for LIFE.”

Count The Costs

Before you jump into memorization, it is a good idea to take stock of your resources—to come up with a plan. Your success will depend on a number of factors: skill and experience, circumstances, support system, and desire. Let's look at these briefly by asking you some questions.

Skill and Experience. Do you know how to take a study plan and follow through with it? What kind of grades do you get in school? Have you ever memorized before?

Age, Circumstances and Time. Sometimes, but not always, older quizzers know how to make better use of their time. Do you have time in your life to memorize Scripture? Do you have a job after school? Are you home-schooled? Quizzing takes time, and you want to take stock of the time that you have before you commit to any plan of long-term study.

Support System. Think about your support system—your family and friends. Are they usually an encouraging or discouraging force? Will they help you reach your study goals, or will they drag you down? You want to be surrounded by people who will encourage you and are committed to your success.

Desire and Motivation. This is probably the most important factor in achieving success in quizzing. Are you self-motivated, or do you require someone to “push” you? Can you focus on a goal, or do you start things and never finish them? Are you memorizing Scripture because you want to, or because your parents, or friends, want you to do it?

These questions were not meant to discourage you from setting out on this worthy journey, but to help you take a realistic look at your likelihood for success. We can't overcome our limitations unless we first recognize them. But after recognizing them, you can overcome them with determination. So take stock of your resources, and build that tower!

Develop A Plan

Use this Study Guide to help you develop a plan. Taking into account your particular learning style, your skill, available time, support system, and motivation, read the sections “Overview of Learning Styles” and “Tools and Techniques” to help put together a plan that is right for you.

And don't get discouraged if it seems hard at first. Most ventures of lasting value require effort, but the benefit you reap will be eternal!

OVERVIEW OF LEARNING STYLES

When it comes to learning, each person is different, and each has a style of learning that suits him best. Here is a brief overview of some common learning styles:

Visual Learners. Visual learners enjoy using pictures, images, colors and maps to help them organize and retain information. They also use them when communicating with others.

Drawing a representative picture of the verse on the back of the flash card may aid this learner in memorizing Scripture. Coming up with mental pictures which contain plenty of action can also help.

Aural Learners. Aural learners enjoy sounds and music. They usually have good rhythm and can often sing or play a musical instrument. Making the verse into a song may be this learner's preferred method of study. They will also benefit from quoting the verses aloud.

Verbal Learners. These learners find it easy to express themselves, both verbally and in writing. They generally enjoy reading, writing, and public speaking. They may benefit from writing out the verses. (This exercise is also useful for the Physical Learner.) As with the Aural Learner, this learner should practice quoting the verses aloud.

Physical Learners. Physical learners enjoy using their body, their hands, and their sense of touch to learn about the world around them. Often they are involved in sports, or enjoy exercise as a way of sorting through problems.

You can recognise this learner because they will physically act out a verse, walking about with great emotion. If this is your style, don't force yourself to sit at a desk. Get up, walk around, and act out God's Word. Be as expressive as you can. The more motion and emotion that you put into your recitation, the easier it will be for your mind to replay later.

Logical Learners. A logical learner can easily recognize patterns as well as find connections between seemingly meaningless content. They are great at math and solve problems in a very systematic way.

This learner will benefit by approaching the material systematically, learning first the references (as pegs to hang the verses on), and then sequentially learning each verse.

Social Learners. These learners prefer to study in groups or with other people. They listen well to others and often enjoy mentoring or counseling. Anywhere people are, that's where they will be.

This can be a blessing and a curse for someone trying to memorize. It normally takes more time for these learners to learn the verses because they need to be around others, but there isn't a better thing to do with your friends than learn Scripture!

Solitary Learners. Solitary learners like to work alone. They are private and independent, and generally like to plan ahead and set goals. This learner, though, needs to actively try to share God's Word with others, and not let it stay bottled up for no one else to hear.

Most people learn using a combination of learning styles, with one style being predominant. Learning can be a frustrating thing if you don't know your learning style. When you start to recognize and understand your own particular styles for learning, you can use techniques better suited to you. This will greatly increase the speed with which you learn new material, and improve your ability to retain that new knowledge.

Memorization is not easy, but it can be easier if you gain a better understanding of your styles for learning and implement some of the techniques associated with those styles.

TOOLS & TECHNIQUES

In developing a plan, it is important to take stock of all your resources and know how to best use the tools available to you. This section will give you some tips on using the tools supplied in this package, as well as teach you some study techniques specific to scripture memory.

Developing Reference Pegs

Before learning any of the verses, it is a good idea to first learn the references. You can get a list of the references by looking at the Progress Checklist included in this booklet.

Learning the references, in order, will aid you as you mentally "check off" each verse during review. We call them pegs, because on them you will be able to hang each learned verse.

Using The Quote Flash Cards

Do you remember when you first learned to add and subtract? It is very likely that you used flash cards to aid you. Or maybe you have seen your friend's quote cards—usually handwritten 3"x5" cards—that took hours to prepare. Your friend carries them everywhere, because they are the easiest way to learn and review quotes.

The flash cards are numbered sequentially to allow you to easily put them back in reference order. Each card includes the verse on one side and the prejump and reference on the other.

Included in the package is a convenient vinyl carrying pouch to carry around 15-20 of the verses that you are currently working on.

Following are some suggestions for using the flash cards:

- Active and correct stacks. Create an "active stack" of cards that you want to work on. Then say the verse that is on the top of the stack, using that card to check your quotation. If you said the verse correctly, then place the card in your "correct stack"; otherwise, put the card back in your active stack (either in the middle or on the bottom). You will continue doing this until all cards have been removed from your active stack.
- Finish this verse (and give the reference) practice. Turn the flash cards so that the side with the prejump words is up, and rotate the cards so that the prejump words are on top. Then using the active and correct stack method above, read each prejump and attempt to complete the verse. If you get it correct, remove the card from the active stack; otherwise, reinsert the card into the stack.

Since single-verse quotes have different prejumps than multi-verse quotes, we recommend using a highlighter on the prejump words of your multi-verse flash cards to make those stand out and remind you that it is a multi-verse prejump.

- Quote practice. Use the same procedure as above for Finish this verse, but this time hold the cards so that the references are on top.

After you have learned the quotes in order, we recommend that you shuffle the cards and study them in random order. This will help your mind learn to retrieve them randomly, something that you will have to do in a quiz.

Using Your 15-Minutes-es

We all are busy, but living a purpose-driven Christian life requires that we prioritize our commitments and use our time wisely (“for the days are evil”). The truth is, we all waste a lot of our day, and if we were just a little more wise in the use of our time, we could accomplish amazing things.

If we examine our day, we will find that we all have small gaps of unused time (“15-minutes-es”). These 15-minutes-es exist as we wait for our next class, wait in line for lunch, wait for the school bus, and so many other waiting and transition moments. If you can identify just one of these wasted gaps each day, and instead of losing the time forever, review your memory verses, then you will find that you don’t need to set aside much, if any, additional time—these gaps will be more than sufficient to learn and review your verses.

The Rule of 7

There is a commonly held rule of learning—it is called the “Rule of 7.” That is, it takes seven concentrated retention efforts to move knowledge from short-term memory to long-term/permanent memory. In practice, this means that you must focus on a memory verse at least 7 separate times in order to make the verse a part of your permanent memory.

Applying this rule, spend 10 minutes or so learning the verse word-perfectly. Then review that verse at least 6 times in the following days. Finally, maintain your verses by reviewing them once a week.

STUDY PLANS

Now that you have taken stock of your resources and counted the costs, it is time to select a study plan that is right for you. The following is a brief survey of a variety of study plans that will help you reach your goal. You can use one of them, or combine the best of each into your own plan tailored to your needs.

Two-Week Plan

Alternately known as the “I’m Bored With Summer Plan” or “I Love Challenges Plan,” this plan requires 14 consecutive days of availability and will take you 8-12 hours each day for success.

You will find that learning verses on the first day is easier than on the last, since on the last you must not only learn the new, but must also maintain the old. As a result, you should use a staggered learning schedule that learns fewer verses each day. With 150 verses this year, use the following plan. (The format is day, followed by number of verses.)

1 (15)	2 (15)	3 (15)	4 (12)	5 (12)	6 (12)	7 (10)
8 (10)	9 (10)	10 (8)	11 (8)	12 (8)	13 (7)	14 (7)

Four-Week Plan

One month still offers a challenge but is not quite as insane a schedule. You should plan to spend 4-6 hours each day. Following is a sample schedule:

1 (11)	2 (11)	3 (10)	4 (9)	5 (9)	6 (8)	7 (8)
8 (7)	9 (7)	10 (7)	11 (6)	12 (6)	13 (6)	14 (5)
15 (5)	16 (5)	17 (4)	18 (4)	19 (4)	20 (3)	21 (3)
22 (3)	23 (2)	24 (2)	25 (2)	26 (1)	27 (1)	28 (1)

Eight-Week Plan

Two months is plenty of time to learn your quotes. With a longer time span, we can take two days off each week and still accomplish our goal. You should plan to spend 2-3 hours each day. Though not necessary, if you have the time, you may use Day 6 and 7 for review. Following is a sample schedule:

Week 1:	1 (7)	2 (7)	3 (7)	4 (7)	5 (7)
Week 2:	1 (6)	2 (6)	3 (6)	4 (6)	5 (6)
Week 3:	1 (5)	2 (5)	3 (5)	4 (5)	5 (5)
Week 4:	1 (4)	2 (4)	3 (4)	4 (4)	5 (4)
Week 5:	1 (3)	2 (3)	3 (3)	4 (3)	5 (3)
Week 6:	1 (2)	2 (2)	3 (2)	4 (2)	5 (2)
Week 7:	1 (2)	2 (2)	3 (2)	4 (2)	5 (2)
Week 8:	1 (1)	2 (1)	3 (1)	4 (1)	5 (1)

With each of the three previous plans, daily review is essential to your success. Remember, it takes 7 focused retention efforts to move knowledge from short-term to long-term memory.

The Two-Week, Four-Week, and Eight-Week plans are good plans to follow during summer vacation, but if you don't have time to spare in the summer, consider the following plan:

Quiz-Season-Long Plan

This plan might also be called the "Just In Time Plan" since you will want to learn the verses in time for each quiz meet. Though you have a larger amount of time to accomplish this plan, you also have to balance school and other fall and winter commitments. You will want to make sure to balance learning new verses with consistent review.

"Learning-For-Life" Plan

Most quizzers learn their verses for the year and then start fresh the next year, never reviewing previous years' verses. While it would be overwhelming to try to add 120 new verses every year, and then try to review all of the verses from previous years, it is completely possible to select a small number of "key verses" each year and make them part of a systematic review plan.

We encourage you to select ten verses each year that will become a permanent part of your systematic review. Then by the end of six years of quizzing, you will have hidden 60 verses in your heart!

We are so excited that you are determined to “dig deeper” and hide God’s Word in your heart. Let God’s Word change not only your mind, but your heart as well! And “Learn God’s Word for LIFE!”

COMPLETE LISTING OF VERSES

- 1:3 Therefore, having carefully investigated everything from the beginning, it seemed good also to me to write an orderly account for you, most excellent Theophilus,
- 1:4 so that you may know the certainty of the things you have been taught.
- 1:17 And he will go on before the Lord in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of the fathers to their children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the righteous—to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.”
- 1:31 Behold, you will conceive and give birth to a son, and you shall give Him the name Jesus.
- 1:32 He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High. The Lord God will give Him the throne of His father David,
- 1:33 and He will reign over the house of Jacob forever. His kingdom will never end!”
- 1:35 The angel replied, “The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. So the Holy One to be born will be called the Son of God.
- 1:37 For nothing will be impossible with God.”
- 1:46 Then Mary said: “My soul magnifies the Lord,
- 1:47 and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior!
- 1:48 For He has looked with favor on the humble state of His servant. From now on all generations will call me blessed.
- 1:49 For the Mighty One has done great things for me. Holy is His name.
- 1:50 His mercy extends to those who fear Him, from generation to generation.
- 1:68 “Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel, because He has visited and redeemed His people.
- 1:76 And you, child, will be called a prophet of the Most High; for you will go on before the Lord to prepare His ways,
- 1:77 to give to His people knowledge of salvation through the forgiveness of their sins,
- 2:10 But the angel said to them, “Do not be afraid! For behold, I bring you good news of great joy that will be for all the people:
- 2:11 Today in the City of David a Savior has been born to you. He is Christ the Lord!

- 2:12 And this will be a sign to you: You will find a baby wrapped in swaddling cloths and lying in a manger.”
- 2:13 And suddenly there appeared with the angel a great multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying:
- 2:14 “Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to men on whom His favor rests!”
- 2:19 But Mary treasured up all these things and pondered them in her heart.
- 2:34 Then Simeon blessed them and said to His mother Mary: “Behold, this Child is appointed to cause the rise and fall of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be spoken against,
- 2:35 so that the thoughts of many hearts will be revealed—and a sword will pierce your soul as well.”
- 2:52 And Jesus grew in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and man.
- 3:4 as it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet: “A voice of one calling in the wilderness, ‘Prepare the way for the Lord; make straight paths for Him.’
- 3:5 Every valley shall be filled in, and every mountain and hill made low. The crooked ways shall be made straight, and the rough ways smooth.
- 3:6 And all mankind will see God’s salvation.”
- 3:16 John answered all of them: “I baptize you with water, but One more powerful than I will come, the straps of whose sandals I am not worthy to untie. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire.
- 3:17 His winnowing fork is in His hand to clear His threshing floor and to gather the wheat into His barn. But He will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.”
- 3:21 When all the people were being baptized, Jesus was baptized too. And as He was praying, heaven was opened,
- 3:22 and the Holy Spirit descended on Him in a bodily form like a dove. And a voice came from heaven: “You are My beloved Son; in You I am well pleased.”
- 4:4 But Jesus answered, “It is written: ‘Man shall not live on bread alone.’”
- 4:8 But Jesus replied, “It is written: ‘Worship the Lord Your God and serve Him only.’”

- 4:12 But Jesus declared, "It also says, 'Do not put the Lord your God to the test.'"
- 4:18 "The Spirit of the Lord is on Me, because He has anointed Me to preach good news to the poor. He has sent Me to proclaim deliverance to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to release the oppressed,
- 4:19 to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor."
- 5:10 and so were his partners James and John, the sons of Zebedee. "Do not be afraid," Jesus said to Simon, "from now on you will catch men."
- 5:24 But so that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on the earth to forgive sins..." He said to the paralytic, "I tell you, get up, pick up your mat, and go home."
- 5:31 Jesus answered, "It is not the healthy who need a doctor, but the sick.
- 5:32 I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners, to repentance."
- 6:20 Looking up at His disciples, Jesus said: "Blessed are you who are poor, for yours is the kingdom of God.
- 6:21 Blessed are you who hunger now, for you will be satisfied. Blessed are you who weep now, for you will laugh.
- 6:22 Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude you and insult you and reject your name as evil because of the Son of Man.
- 6:23 Rejoice in that day and leap for joy, because great is your reward in heaven. For their fathers treated the prophets in the same way.
- 6:27 But to those of you who will listen, I say: Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you,
- 6:28 bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you.
- 6:29 If someone strikes you on one cheek, turn to him the other also. And if someone takes your cloak, do not withhold your tunic as well.
- 6:30 Give to everyone who asks you, and if anyone takes what is yours, do not demand it back.
- 6:31 Do to others as you would have them do to you.
- 6:35 But love your enemies, do good to them, and lend to them, expecting nothing in return. Then your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High; for He is kind to the ungrateful and wicked.

- 6:36 Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful.
- 6:37 Do not judge, and you will not be judged. Do not condemn, and you will not be condemned. Forgive, and you will be forgiven.
- 6:38 Give, and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over will be poured into your lap. For with the measure you use, it will be measured back to you.”
- 6:47 I will show you what he is like who comes to Me and hears My words and acts on them:
- 6:48 He is like a man building a house, who dug down deep and laid his foundation on the rock. When the flood came, the torrent crashed against that house but could not shake it, because it was well built.
- 7:16 A sense of awe swept over all of them, and they glorified God. “A great prophet has appeared among us!” they said. “God has visited His people!”
- 7:22 So He replied, “Go back and report to John what you have seen and heard: The blind receive sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the good news is preached to the poor.
- 7:23 Blessed is the one who does not fall away on account of Me.”
- 7:27 This is the one about whom it is written: ‘Behold, I will send My messenger ahead of You, who will prepare Your way before You.’
- 8:8 Still other seed fell on good soil, where it sprang up and produced a crop—a hundredfold.” As Jesus said this, He called out, “He who has ears to hear, let him hear.”
- 8:15 But the seeds on good soil are those with a noble and good heart, who hear the word, cling to it, and by persevering produce a crop.
- 8:39 “Return home and tell how much God has done for you.” So the man went and proclaimed all over the town how much Jesus had done for him.
- 9:1 Then Jesus called the Twelve together and gave them power and authority over all demons, and power to cure diseases.
- 9:2 And He sent them out to proclaim the kingdom of God and to heal the sick.
- 9:20 “But who do you say I am?” He asked. Peter replied, “The Christ of God.”
- 9:23 Then Jesus said to all of them, “If anyone would come after Me, he must deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow Me.

- 9:24 For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake will save it.
- 9:25 What will it profit a man if he gains the whole world, yet loses or forfeits his very self?
- 9:35 And a voice came from the cloud, saying, "This is My Son, whom I have chosen; listen to Him!"
- 9:48 And He said to them, "Whoever welcomes this little child in My name welcomes Me, and whoever welcomes Me welcomes the One who sent Me. For whoever is the least among all of you, he is the greatest."
- 10:2 And He told them, "The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few. Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into His harvest.
- 10:20 Nevertheless, do not rejoice that the spirits submit to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven."
- 10:21 At that time, Jesus rejoiced in the Holy Spirit and declared, "I praise You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and learned, and revealed them to little children. Yes, Father, for this was well-pleasing in Your sight.
- 10:22 All things have been entrusted to Me by My Father. No one knows who the Son is except the Father, and no one knows who the Father is except the Son, and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal Him."
- 10:27 He answered, "'Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind' and 'Love your neighbor as yourself.'"
- 11:2 So Jesus told them, "When you pray say: 'Father, hallowed be Your name. Your kingdom come.
- 11:3 Give us each day our daily bread.
- 11:4 And forgive us our sins, for we also forgive everyone who sins against us. And lead us not into temptation.'"
- 11:9 So I tell you: Ask and it will be given to you; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you.
- 11:10 For everyone who asks receives; he who seeks finds; and to him who knocks, the door will be opened.
- 11:23 He who is not with Me is against Me, and he who does not gather with Me scatters.
- 11:28 But He replied, "Blessed rather are those who hear the word of God and obey it."

- 12:4 I tell you, My friends, do not be afraid of those who kill the body and after that can do no more.
- 12:5 But I will show you whom you should fear: Fear the One who, after you have been killed, has power to throw you into hell. Yes, I tell you, fear Him!
- 12:8 I tell you, everyone who confesses Me before men, the Son of Man will also confess him before the angels of God.
- 12:9 But whoever denies Me before men will be denied before the angels of God.
- 12:15 And He said to them, "Watch out! Guard yourselves against every form of greed, for a man's life does not consist in the abundance of his possessions."
- 12:31 But seek His kingdom, and these things will be added unto you.
- 12:32 Do not be afraid, little flock, for your Father is pleased to give you the kingdom.
- 12:33 Sell your possessions and give to the poor. Provide yourselves with purses that will not wear out, an inexhaustible treasure in heaven, where no thief approaches and no moth destroys.
- 12:34 For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.
- 12:40 You also must be ready, because the Son of Man will come at an hour you do not expect."
- 13:24 "Make every effort to enter through the narrow door. For many, I tell you, will try to enter and will not be able.
- 13:32 But Jesus replied, "Go tell that fox, 'Look, I will keep driving out demons and healing people today and tomorrow, and on the third day I will reach My goal.'
- 14:11 For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted."
- 14:27 And whoever does not carry his cross and follow Me cannot be My disciple.
- 14:33 In the same way, any one of you who does not give up everything he has cannot be My disciple.
- 15:7 In the same way, I tell you that there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous ones who do not need to repent.
- 15:10 In the same way, I tell you, there is joy in the presence of God's angels over one sinner who repents."

- 16:10 Whoever is faithful with very little will also be faithful with much, and whoever is dishonest with very little will also be dishonest with much.
